

Stop fighting it, brother. Give up all your “rights” -- all talents, all abilities, all gifts, all the things you’ve clung to to get your need met for self-acceptance. You will find “life” through allowing Him to express Himself through your talents, your abilities, your gifts, and your personality to a hurting world to do His will.
That’s the way Jesus walked.
He let the Father do it through Him.